Colt Peacemaker Duke

The Colt Single Action Army (SAA) .45 revolver is a true American icon and has graced the collections of enthusiasts for 140 years. A favorite gun of the late John Wayne, the Peacemaker sat on his hip in over 100 of his Western films. An Oscar-winning Hollywood legend, John Wayne was also known as the "Duke".

Marion Mitchell Morrison, who weighed a whopping 13 pounds at birth, got his first dog "Duke" when he was nine-years old. Marion and Duke were inseparable and the boy was soon referred to as "Little Duke". To his relief the nickname stuck. Although his billing as John Wayne came a little later, his friends continued to call him the Duke.

To commemorate the legacy of the famous six-shooter and the man who made the gun a symbol of the American West, the replica Duke Colt Single Action CO2 Revolver was built. This replica revolver is a throwback to gunslingers of old and America's favorite cowboy actor, the Duke himself. It's a must-have for any collectors, a great plinker for endless fun, and an effective tool for training new shooters.

Featuring a full-metal frame, authentic action, and synthetic grips that have an inlay of John Wayne, this single shot BB revolver is CO2 powered and includes a 6-round cylinder with a working ejector rod. The 6-shot comes in various finishes and reveals the John Wayne signature on the back strap
