Victorian, English C1840 Lacy & Co London Private Purchase, Short Sea Service Customs / Revenue, .577 Calibre Percussion Pistol With Captive Steel Ram Rod. Sn 16930 - 16930

John George Lacy was an English London based Gunsmith first recorded as being in business between 1811-1815. In 1815 he went into partnership with David William Witton and they traded as Lacy & Co until 1833 at various London addresses including 63 Fenchurch Street and 13 Camomile Street. In 1836 the partnership ended. In 1853 Lacy is again recorded as operating as Lacy & Co (see pages 141 & 177 of British Gunmakers Vol.1 By Brown). This is an excellent original Victorian Private Purchase Short Sea Service Customs/ Revenue percussion Pistol by Lacy & Co. It is 12" overall length with a 6" barrel. The pistol's smoothbore has just light staining & residue consistent with age. It has original Walnut full stock with brass furniture & is undamaged. It has its original captive steel ram rod & the barrel has proof marks. The brass butt plate is fitted with lanyard ring. The action plate is marked 'Lacy & Co London'. The action functions perfectly. As an antique percussion pistol no licence is required to own this item in the UK if retained as part of a display or collection. The price includes UK delivery.
