Edwardian Era English George Butler & Co Sheffield 'Maker To His Majesty' Multi Blade / Tool Folding Pocket Knife With 'Cigar Fork', Mother Of Pearl Scales & Period Suede Pocket Case. Sn 17073:1 - 17073:1

The English cutlers George Butler & Co Sheffield are recorded C1810-1952. Located at their Trinity Works (see pages 169-170 of the Sheffield knife Book by Tweedale). This is an excellent, original, Edwardian era folding pocket knife / multi tool by Butler & Co. It has a 2" single edged blade, 1 1/2" blade, scissors, a button hook, file, gimlet & a cigar fork. 5 of the 7 blades / tools have crisp manufacturer marks (all illustrated). All of the blades and tools are clean and fold securely into the frame of the knife. The frame of the knife has tooled decoration. It has superb Mother of Pearl scales secured by pins. One scale has an inlaid German Silver escutcheon. The knife comes with its period suede pocket case which has a flap cover and press stud fastener. The knife has obviously been with the case for many years accounting for the splendid condition of the knife. The price for this attractive, nicely marked, Edwardian pocket knife by a reputable maker with pocket case includes UK delivery. Sn 17073:1
