This spring powered .177 pellet firing rifle is made by the well known manufacturer Remington who have been making quality firearms since 1816. Those many years in the business give them the experience to make quality rifles just like this one.

The Express uses a break barrel system to cock the rifle as well as being full length and featuring a hardwood stock. At the rear of the stock is a rubber recoil pad, the middle of the rifle features a cut checkering and a two stage trigger.

* Delivery Delivery to England & Wales

Here at Pellpax we offer probably the best airgun delivery service in the UK, with weekly deliveries to your door on all airguns across England and Wales and mail order deliveries on all other items. We can also offer RFD transfers to a local gun shop upon request.

We now also deliver to the Isle of Wight on the last weekend of every month.

* Delivery Delivery to Scotland

Unfortunately due to recent changes in the law we can no longer deliver firearms to Scotland although we can still transfer to your local Registered Firearms Dealer. Postal orders will be sent out as normal.

In addition to the manufacturers one year warranty, Pellpax offer a FREE LIFETIME repair service that covers all gunsmith labour costs. Shipping & parts are excluded. Find out more
