Swords Of Hitlers Third Reich By Major John Angolia. BO 361 - BO 361

This is the first book in John Angolia's publishing career which spanned several decades and covered all aspects of Hitler's Third Reich. The book was privately published by Fred Stephen, another stalwart of the collection fraternity and still going strong) in 1969 in Southend-on Sea, Essex. The book was the first detailed examination of German swords during the Third Reich and is profusely illustrated with a scholarly text. The book has 208 pages and comes complete with its original dustwrapper which has minor nicks but no tears. This is another classic word and is getting scarce to obtain. The price includes UK delivery. Other books are available in the book section. BO 361
