German Military Cuffbands 1784 – Present By Gordon Williamson And Thomas McGuirl. BO 362 - BO 362

This is a first edition of a pioneering work and was published in 1998 by R. James Bender. The book is a comprehensive study of German cuff bands from the Gibraltar one dating back to 1794 and covers all known W.W.2 ones including Bundeswehr and D.D.R versions from the post-war period. The book also has a very informative section of post war reproductions which is essential for collector. The book is profusely illustrated in colour and black and white showing both the cuff bands themselves and also contemporary photographs of them in wear. The cuff bands also show the variations, award documents, R.Z.M. labels, front and back pictures showing the weave. This is an excellent reference for both collectors and researchers. The price includes UK delivery. Other books are available in the book section. BO 362
