Description

Belgian 1952 Military Contract FN Model 49, (FN-49) Self Loading Rifle (SLR). Sn 11224. - 11224
The Fabrique Nationale Model 1949 (FN-49) is a semi-automatic rifle designed by Dieudonné Saive and manufactured in Belgium by Fabrique Nationale. It was produced between 1949—1961 and used by the Armed Forces of Argentina, Belgium, the Belgian Congo, Brazil, Colombia, Egypt, Indonesia, Luxembourg, and Venezuela. This original Belgian 1952 Military Contract FN-49 is deactivated to new specification and has no moving parts. The original wood stock has the bumps and bruises to be expected with service use. The receiver ring is stamped with a crown above 'B' and 'ABL' mark. It has a steel butt plate with trap, bayonet lug and is fitted with sling swivels. The left side of the frame is crisply stamped with the 'Fabrique Nationale Herstal D'Armes De Guerre Belgique' address. Price for this FN-49 suitable for display purposes includes deactivation certificate & UK delivery. Sn 11224 £375.00
