Early 19th Century Imperial German Falchion Short Sword Sidearm With Large Stag Antler Handle. Sn 12192 - 12192

This an original falchion in the form most usually seen in Imperial Germany during the early 1800's. The large falchions has a heavy curved 22 ¾" long blade with 3 narrow fullers on either side grooves . The blade is 1 ¾" at its widest point and has 3 naïve 'Sun, Moon and Stars' marks, most likely applied by the unknown maker (illustrated inset in image 2). The weapon measures 31 ½" overall length. It has a large 8 ½" curved solid Stag antler handle which has a brass ferrule at the hilt and iron cross guard. The price for substantial Imperial German falchion includes UK delivery. Sn 12192 £345.00
