Description

Small Family Collection of Royal Australian Air Force (RAAF) Items. Sn. 13084:11 - 13084:11
This is a small collection of items from a family comprising an R.A.A.F. aerial dead reckoning computer Mark 1 manufactured in the 1930s by W&G of Melbourne for the Australian military. ( A printout of an identical item is included. A R.A.F. pilots flying manual from 1949, rubber stamped to the title page 'TECHNICAL LIBRARY No 1 B F T S R.A.A.F. Uranquinty N.S.W.. There are also 5 other items namely a pocket fold out of silhouettes of aircraft 'Air Ministry RESTRICTED October 1951', a glossary of flying, a photo book of Jets of the R.A.F Series 1, a Selas picket signal reminder and an empty R.A.A.F. aircrew check lists folder. This is an accumulation of one mans service from the late 1940s to the early 1960s. There is also a wireless licence from May 1930 to a Charles Bailey which may give a slender lead to further research. An interesting set. The price includes U.K..delivery. Sn. 13084:11
